Sacred Sites/Shellmound Peace Walk Update

THE TIME IS FINALLY HERE! COME JOIN US ON THE WALK Nov. 7-25, 2005!

As part of the Sacred Sites/Shellmound Peace Walk, we will be having a number of speakers every few days and films on native struggles and native American issues which are open to the public as well as the participants. Here are three lectures that may be of interest to you.

Saturday, Nov. 12, 7pm

Alan Levanthal, San Jose State Anthropology Professor and Ethnologist for the Muwekma Ohlone Tribe to speak on the ethnological research he has been doing for several decades for the Muwekma Tribe in their effort to have their federal recognition re-instated and his work with Rosemary Cambra, chairperson of the Muwekma.
Mills College, 5000 MacArthur Blvd., Oakland

Wednesday, Nov. 16, 7pm

Ken LaJoie, Retired Geologist with the U.S.G.S.
to speak on the History of San Francisco Bay. Did you know that the Bay is only 10,000 years old? Come hear about the natural history of the Bay's formation and the coming of the ancient people and their shellmounds to its tidelands.
Stanford University Native American Clubhouse, Palo Alto

Tuesday, Nov. 22, 7pm

Malcolm Margolin, Owner of Heyday Books, Author of "The Ohlone Way" and Publisher of "News from Native California" to speak on the importance of preserving what little is left of the ancient shellmounds
New College, 19th & Valencia, San Francisco

Please call to confirm

the time, date and place of these talks and the daily update on where you may join the walk, what films will be shown that day and where, etc.
